If you've answered YES, keep reading... You Are About To Discover Exactly How To Master The Craft Of Public Speaking And Blend It With Effective Storytelling To Propel Your Business And Personal Brand To The Next Level! In business, stories have a powerful meaning and function besides offering

entertainment value. They connect people with other people, brands and businesses; provide context, meaning and evoke a sense of purpose. Notably, stories are as important as the ability to tell them. Good stories go hand in hand with good public speaking skills- but unfortunately, you might be good in one and not the other, or none altogether. Like most people who understand the importance of having great storytelling and public speaking skills, you might often wonder: How do I create and tell good stories in business? What kind of stories are the best? How do I overcome my fear of speaking in public? How do I write a good speech? If so, then this beginners' 2 in 1 book is clearly the perfect resource for you. You will learn how to create and tell stories that inspire and convert, as well as how to confidently relay them through public speaking best practices. More precisely, you'll learn:

- What brand storytelling refers to
- The benefits of storytelling in business
- Great examples of storytelling done right
- How to tell a compelling story in simple steps
- Why it's important to explore storytelling in business
- What makes a powerful story so?
- What you need to know about storytelling in finance
- How you can find a suitable story
- Why statistics don't sell and stories do
- How to speak in public confidently
- Why public speaking makes us nervous
- The symptoms of glassophobia
- How to create a good speech
- How to speak in public like a pro
- How to overcome fear for effective public speaking
- Why public speaking matters nowadays
- How to become an efficient public speaker by optimizing your pitch, tempo and inflection
- The most important things you need to consider to be a good public speaker
- How to analyze your audience ...And much more!

Humans are naturally receptive to stories and communication that helps them empathize, relate, understand and remember. They also respond pretty well to confidence and credible content. You can imagine what you can achieve by being a good storyteller and public speaker... How much you can gain from convinced, engaged and loyal listeners. I know that would mean a lot for your business and personal brand. And that's just what this 2 in 1 book will help you to achieve, even if you consider yourself awkward, not creative, inexperienced and more! One of the few modern journalists with a real talent for language ?he has set out what to say and how to say it." Tribune There are speeches, and then there are great speeches. As public speakers it's the great speeches that we want to give; however, how is one to go about creating such a speech? What You'll Find Inside: THE THREE KEY GOALS OF ANY PRESENTATION HOW TO CONNECT WITH YOUR AUDIENCE GET 'EM TO UNDERSTAND, GET 'EM TO REMEMBER QUICK HIT: TOP 10 TIPS TO

REMEMBER WHEN WRITING A SPEECH It turns out that creating a great speech really is not all that hard to do if you know how. The first thing that you have to do is to realize that a great speech is one that your audience will enjoy listening to. However, even more important than that is that long after you are done speaking, they are going to remember what you said. A great speech is one that "sticks" with your audience. Your speech is also going to have to be persuasive. Every speech that we give is given for a reason. We want to change the way that our audience views their world. This means that you are going to have to change their minds. The key to doing that in a great speech is to find a way to be persuasive. Tap into your audience's desire to believe in something and make them believe in you and your ideas. We can all learn how to transform a plain ordinary speech into a great speech if we know where to look. There are great speakers out there who have tips for us. We can learn how to add humor to our speeches and we can learn how to write better speeches in the first place. All of these things are possible, you just have to be told how to do them. That's exactly what this book is all about - how to create the perfect speech. We are going to step you through each of the different techniques that you can use to make your next speech unforgettable. Speech perfection is within your grasp! For more information on what it takes to be a great public speaker, check out my blog, The Accidental Communicator, at: www.TheAccidentalCommunicator.com As speakers, we want to create the best speech that we can. In order to do this we can make use of a large number of tools that are available. However, we first have to know about the tools that we have access to and then we need to know how to go about using them. Each of these tasks can be learned. What You'll Find Inside: *10 TIPS FOR CONQUERING THE FINAL FRONTIER OF SPEAKING: TELEVISION * WHY PUBLIC SPEAKERS SHOULD ALWAYS USE NOTES * #1 SECRET ALL SUCCESSFUL PUBLIC SPEAKERS KNOW (AND YOU SHOULD TOO) *PUBLIC SPEAKING REQUIRES A VOICE THAT PEOPLE WANT TO HEAR Where we give a speech is something that can be different each time we give a speech. One location that not many of us may have thought of is giving a speech that televised. When we do this, how we go about giving the speech is different from how we normally give speeches. One of the most important parts of any speech that we give is our voice. However, we have to learn how to listen to ourselves if we want to change how our audience is going to hear our voice. Improving our speech depends on more than just our voice: we need to both practice before giving the speech and then remember to bring notes on the day that we deliver the speech. Goal setting is a great way to measure our progress in real life. It turns out that it also works when we are trying to improve how we speak. If we ever get good enough at this speaking thing, then there is a chance that we might win an award. If this happens, we're going to have to know the right way to go about accepting it. Our speeches can be long and filled with a number of different important ideas. If we find ourselves in a situation where the exact words that we say and the order in which we say them is important, then we may need to use a teleprompter. This is a powerful tool, but we need to take the time to learn how to get the most out of it. For more information on what it takes to be a great public speaker, check out my blog, The Accidental Communicator, at: www.TheAccidentalCommunicator.com I'm pretty sure that we can all agree on one thing: we'd like the next speech that we give to be a great speech. Now the big question that we are all faced with is just exactly how to go about making this happen? What You'll Find Inside: WHAT'S THE BEST STORY THAT A PUBLIC SPEAKER CAN TELL? JUST HOW DOES ONE CREATE A KEYNOTE PRESENTATION? HOW TO WRITE THE PERFECT SPEECH PERSONAL INFORMATION: HOW MUCH SHOULD A PRESENTER REVEAL? The one thing that will make any speech appeal to an audience is if we include a great story in it. However, we've got to have a way to figure out what the best story that we can include would be. Every speech that we are asked to give is different, but keynote speeches are the most visible. The good news is that there is a very specific way to go about making this type of speech. An audience wants to know more about the person who is addressing them. Specifically, they often want to know about the bad things that have happened to you and how you have dealt with them. We get some help in figuring out how to communicate things like this if we go to the pros for help. Jack Welch's speech writer is one person who can lend us a hand. When we want to write the perfect speech, we need to have the creative ideas that will make it a great speech. Sometimes no matter how hard we try, we just run out of ideas. This is when it becomes time to go read a book. If you are given a short amount of time in which to deliver your speech, you need to very carefully plan out what you'll say. The one thing that you don't want to do in any speech of any length is to use naughty words. Stories are so powerful that we really should always be looking to include them in any speech that we give. This includes business presentations. However, we need to be careful about how much personal information we include in our stories because it is possible to include too much. As videos are so much important today, I believe that everyone must have some knowledge on creating and editing videos for of common tasks required by his personal or business use. This book has mainly an objective to evaluate some text to speech converters, voice changers, video editors, cartoon animators and video recording and live streaming programs. As I am Arabic, I gave special importance to look for the best tools that can convert Arabic text to voice with good quality because of the lack of these tools. And I also gave special importance to look for the best tools that can change the voice tune as a lot of people don't like to make videos with their voice for special reasons. Then I gave quick guide on how to use the two important video editors, VSDC Free Video Editor and Camtasia Studio. Then I gave quick guide on how to use two websites that enable people to create cartoon animation videos in a simple way, <https://www.animaker.com/> website and <https://www.powtoon.com> website. Then I gave quick guide on how to use one of the best animator programs, which is Reallusion Cartoon Animator 4. I explained also how it is possible to make face mockup through Cartoon Animator 4 Motion Live 2D Plugin. Then I introduced Adobe Character Animator as alternative program to make face mockup. Finally I explained about one of the video recording and live streaming programs, which is OBS Studio. I mentioned briefly how to setup OBS studio to create livestream video on Youtube and Facebook. At the end, I showed how to use Voki website to create customizable speaking avatars. This work is divided to the following sections. 1. Luckily Philip Collins, former Chief Speech Writer to Tony Blair, knows exactly what's needed to give a storming speech. The secret, according to Philip, is content. Too many of us focus on how we're presenting, and don't spend enough time thinking about what we're presenting. The secret to memorable, polished speeches is to think more about the material you're sharing - to pay attention to detail and choose your words carefully. Speech writing is an art - and art we can all learn. When the content's right, the confidence will follow. In The Art of Speeches and Presentations Philip Collins provides you with a concise set of tools, preparing you for any speaking occasion. Ranging from the ancient history of rhetoric to what makes Barack Obama such a good speaker, it's packed with practical examples and tips to teach you the craft of speaking well and making people remember what to say. "Does Phil Collins know what he is talking about? Here's the answer - he isn't just good, he is the best. It's as simple as that. I spent years writing speeches for major politicians and I now speak publicly myself all the time, and yet there is so much that I can pick up from him and anyone who reads this book will too."—Daniel Finkelstein, Executive Editor, The Times and former speech writer to William Hague The goal of any speaker is that when they give their speech their audience hangs on their every word. In order to make this happen, we need to find ways to organize our speech so that we can both capture and hold our audience's attention from start to finish. THE 2 MOST IMPORTANT THINGS THAT A PUBLIC SPEAKER NEEDS TO DO WHEN THE CURTAIN GOES

UP Every speech has to start out well and this is a great opportunity to do some bragging about yourself to your audience. Al Gore has some tips for us so that we can understand what budgets we have to spend during our speech. If you get asked to give more than one speech in a day, you're going to have to know how to manage your voice for the duration. If you want your next speech to make an impression then you are going to have to find a way to inspire your audience. This all starts with how you plan on going on capturing your audience's attention. Networking with your audience is the key to getting them to listen to what you are going to be telling them. Everything that you do starts from the moment that the curtain goes up. What your audience thinks of you is often determined by the introduction. If you get asked to deliver a keynote, then you are going to need to get some guidance on how to create and deliver one successfully. In the end, it's how you choose to organize your speech that will determine the impact that it will have on your audience. Carefully creating a speech that has all of the parts that you are going to need in order to capture your audience's attention is what is going to make your next speech memorable. ATTENTION MOTHERS OF THE GROOM: If you've been asked to be the Mother of the Groom in a wedding, then this is the book for you! - When you buy this book, you'll get the following: - All of the duties required of the Mother of the Groom - How to prepare, brainstorm, outline, rehearse and execute your speech. - We'll discuss all of the duties of a Mother of the Groom so you're completely prepared for the day of the wedding. - This will include coordinating with the bride and groom, dress and appearance, interacting with friends and family, recording the speech and so much more - A step-by-step guide to write your speech - What to expect before, during, and after the speech - The biggest mistake most Mother of the Groom make... - PLUS templated speeches for introverts and extroverts (with time estimates) And much, MUCH more... Below is a short excerpt: It goes without saying that the Mother of the Groom has one of the most difficult jobs in the entire wedding party. Aside from the officiant, and perhaps the best man, the Mother of the Groom duties are by far the most numerous and diverse. From holding rings and coordinating with catering personnel, to handling last minute "fires," and mingling with guests, the title of Mother of the Groom carries with it a long list of responsibilities. Chief among them is your Mother of the Groom speech. For anyone who's attended weddings before, you've probably seen the good, the bad, and the ugly. Some speakers give great speeches that energize the crowd and leave a memory that will last a lifetime. While others fumble through notes and put the audience to sleep. Worst of all is when a speaker fails so epically, that they leave people feeling awkward or uncomfortable. Intentional or not, this can have a long-lasting effect that can ruin the day. Whether it's malfunctioning microphones, lost note cards, or lack of preparation, there are a million things that can go wrong during a Mother of the Groom speech. The purpose of this book is to help you navigate through the common pitfalls most Mothers of the Groom make and prepare you to give a KILLER Mother of the Groom speech. In this book, I'll teach you how to prepare, brainstorm, outline, rehearse, and execute your speech. We'll discuss all of the duties of a Mother of the Groom so you're completely prepared for the day of the wedding. This will include coordinating with the bride and groom, dress and appearance, interacting with friends and family, recording the speech, alcohol consumption and so much more. Additionally, you'll learn the most common issues that happen during the Mother of the Groom speech and how to overcome them. Moreover, I provide an example speech at the end of the book, that can be tweaked for your particular needs. Ultimately, this book will provide a Mother of the Groom with the tools, tips, tricks--and most importantly the confidence--they'll need to give a killer speech. By the end of the event, you'll walk out feeling like a hero and knowing you gave it 110%. I'm sure you're going to love this book. But don't take my word for it. Scroll up and BUY YOUR COPY TODAY! Let's face it, creating a speech is hard work. However, as long as we are going to go to the effort of creating a speech, it sure seems like we should do a good job of it. Now the difficult part comes: just exactly how does one go about creating a speech that works? What You'll Find Inside: SIZE MATTERS - SHAPING YOUR SPEECH TO MATCH YOUR AUDIENCE THE SECRET TO BECOMING AN EXPERT IN ANYTHING GET IT DONE: THINKING ON YOUR FEET AND BUILDING A SPEECH REAL QUICK 4 THINGS THAT YOU SHOULD NEVER TALK ABOUT We need to keep in mind the fact that we are never creating a generic speech. Instead, we're creating a specific speech for a specific audience. What this means is that we need to customize our speech to our audience. Our ultimate goal is to be able to create a speech that is so good that we are able to cast a spell over our audience. We want our audience to listen to what we have to say. This means that we need to find ways to get them to view us as being the experts on what we are talking about. If we want them to remember what we've told them, then we need to find ways to make them laugh during our speech. This is no easy thing to accomplish. In our hopes of getting our audience to listen to us, we all struggle with the same sets of questions. Will they believe us? This comes down to the age old question of if an audience will believe what you are telling them because of who you are or because of how you tell them. If you have not had time to prepare a formal speech, then you had better be good at thinking on your feet! The only tool that we have to work with when we are giving a speech is words. What words we use and how we put them together can allow us to create powerful speeches that can change how people think. When we are creating these speeches we need to keep in mind the fact that the best speeches often have a great deal of us in them.
