The call to unite against espionage in white collar crime against black America. Wolves in sheep's clothing... Jesus warned us about them, the apostles did too, and the sheep are following them like lambs to the slaughter. From Christian-cults to the rise of false-messiahs, we have now reached the point where even our faithful, trustworthy church leaders are being deceived, more than ever before. The ways of the world and political correctness are now taking over; morphing into 'new teachings' being 'fed' to the sheep under the guise of progressive, liberal Christianity - the lie that wants to ditch orthodox, biblical teaching and replace it with counterfeits. A line has been crossed, with no turning back. The pit has been opened, and the demons are rushing out. We cannot dither or we will be devoured! We must run for our lives and follow the voice of our only True Shepherd, the Lord Jesus Christ. The howl of the wolves will get louder and louder as the days hasten towards the return of Christ. Knowing and obeying God's Word will help you escape from their snare. Packed with Scripture to show you the way, Watchmen ... or Wolves? will be a beacon of light directing you away from the dangerous path on which the Church is now headed. 'I am delighted to be able to commend this important book... This book rekindles the prophetic vision of what the Church is called to be and what the principles of the Kingdom are as we find them set out in the revelation of Scripture... The Church in the West is at the most critical moment in its history for the last 500 years. Voices like those of Chris and Michele Neal are badly needed if the prophetic call to repent is to be heard.' - Excerpt from the Foreword by The Right Reverend Dr Gavin Ashenden, former Chaplain to Her Majesty the Queen. 'Chris and Michele Neal's latest offering to the people of God is a no excuses course for our times that clearly states where and how the Church is operating in compromise... This is a must-read for every church leader!' - The Reverend Charlyne M. Boddie; Minister, International Speaker and Author. 'Watchmen ... or Wolves? illustrates the disturbing trend within churches today to conform to the world, ignore the Truth of God's Word and deceive those attending these churches. This excellent book leaves no stone unturned. It is both disturbing and challenging. Thoroughly researched, backed up with powerful Scripture references and providing plenty of up-to-date examples, this book exposes the incredible assault on the Truth of God's Word and on those who would uphold the Truth...this book can be counted among the top clear voices sounding a clear warning AND call to action for those willing to heed.' - Day Ashton - Author, Freelance Writer and Bible Teacher and Blogger. 'A timely wake-up call to a Church gone adrift from its Biblical moorings.' - The Reverend Melvin Tinker, Senior Minister St John Newland, Hull. Author of 'That Hideous Strength: How The West was Lost'. Chris is the author of The Christian Book for Men. Michele is the author of Come on Church! Wake Up!, The End of The World, The Gospel of Deception and When Healing Doesn't Happen. Their books have been written out of obedience to the Lord's calling and intervention in their lives. They have been followers of Christ since 1991 and live in the United Kingdom. Lauren's in a helluva mess. Timothy Gallagher provides here a hopeful invitation to all who struggle to overcome the greatest obstacle of all in the spiritual life — discouragement. Our enemy actively exploits our vulnerabilities, shrewdly leading us time and again into an overwhelming sense of disturbance. But Fr. Gallagher pulls the curtain back on the wiles of the devil, offering gentle reflections that are remarkably effective in lightening the burdens of your day-to-day spiritual life. You'll learn practical ways to find peace amid your spiritual struggles, and patience in the face of even the most intense trials. Best of all, you'll learn how to profit spiritually from the afflictions that beset you. Each reflection in these pages begins with a quotation by Venerable Bruno Lanteri, the holy founder of the Oblates of the Virgin Mary, whose wisdom has guided the uncommonly insightful spirituality of Fr. Gallagher. There is no shame in spiritual desolation. Fr. Gallagher reminds us that the greatest of saints suffered from this affliction. The key is to learn how to draw closer to God in life's darkest moments. Overcoming Spiritual Discouragement is a call to hope . . . a call to solace in time of suffering . . . and a call to stand tall in times of affliction. In bestselling author T L Swan's second hot installment to the Miles High Club series, he's sexy, rich, and her mortal enemy. Hate never felt so good. I first met Tristan Miles at a meeting where he was trying to take over my late husband's company. He was powerful, arrogant, and infuriatingly gorgeous, and I hated him with every cell in my body. In the shock of the century, he called me three days later and asked me on a date. I would rather die than date a man like him--though I do have to admit it was good for the ego. Turning him down was the highlight of my year. Six months later, he was the guest speaker at a conference I attended in France. Still arrogant and infuriating--but this time, surprisingly charming and witty. When he looked at me, I got butterflies. But I can't go there. He's just a player in a hot suit, and I'm just a widow with three unruly sons. I just need this conference to be over. Because everybody knows that Tristan Miles always gets what he wants...and what he wants is me. It is a story of the fights between the protectionists and free traders of the nineteenth century, of our relationships with the US, Britain, Japan and China, and of the rise of Google and Uber. This little book, A Month with Mary, also originated from an act of charity of Father Dolindo. Father Dolindo wrote A Month with Mary on pocket-sized pages joined into small fascicles of 8 to 12 pages. He sent them to Laura de Rosis every two to three days and later transcribed them with some modifications in volume III of his Autobiography: The Story of My Life in the Plan of the Great Mercy of God, pp. 1140 ff (cf. Epistolario 1:212n, 218n). This work is from 1912: one of those years which passed in the life of Father Dolindo with the cadence of a "Way of the Cross" ... But he, serene as ever, loved Christ the more, loved Our Lady the more and reflected this love in these few pages to which he wished to give the significant title: A Profound Reform of Heart in the School of Mary. These meditations are written in the style of the Imitation of Christ. Meditations for just one soul!
