"Absorbing Modernity: 1914-2014" is the theme suggested by Rem Koolhaas, director of the 2014 Architecture Venice Biennale. National representations has been invited to show from its own perspective the process of removing national or local characteristics in favor of an universal adoption and appropriation of modern language. On this basis "Taller V" (an architectural workshop coordinated by Gustavo Pernia, professor at the Architecture Department from the Universidad del Tachira UNET in Venezuela, has brought together students to undertake a research work for the Biennale -academic- Sessions. This publication provides a view on the evolution of the residential architecture during the last 100 years in Venezuela. In addition to the temporal delimitation there is a program mark off: single family dwelling units, which recognized quality have received less attention and exposure on international exhibitions. The book summarizes the research, selection, digitizing and modeling works from a bibliographic survey to heritage inventories. A documentary work that homogenizes information and exposes it on an aseptically and timeless way, without judgments or interpretations.

Cent'anni! Mar 01 2023 In "Cent' Anni: 100 Years," ten short sketches present three generations of an immigrant Italian family from Bari as they lurch through dooms of love to an American identity. Separating these related vignettes are Interludes, one-page snapshots of their lives in New York City and Long Island. In Italy, Northerners considered the peoples south of Rome to be barbarians: "Hide the silver," the adage goes, "They're from Bari." Even greater hostility awaited these impoverished Southern Italians in New York. To deal with it, they insulated themselves within the magic circle of their immediate family adopting a cunning silence to keep all others at bay. Despite high principles of sacrifice and care giving, some could neither forego "easy money" nor the privileges and power such money procured. Beginning with the death of Mamma in 1929, some of the stories are comic, some sad, some both, all originating from the struggle "to breathe free" in a new land.

A Dictionary of English and Italian Equivalent Proverbs Apr 07 2021 This dictionary assembles 2,513 English proverbs and their Italian equivalents. Equivalent proverbs are those which express the same concept, be it literally, such as "Love is blind" = "L'amore è cieco," or with completely different words, such as "Every cloud has a silver lining" = "Non tutto il male viene per nuocere." The Dictionary is a very useful reference tool for scholars of the two languages, for researchers working in various associated fields such as linguistics, literature, folklore, anthropology, psychology, sociology, history, and for workers in newer areas such as advertising and contemporary media. The Dictionary is also of interest to diplomats and politicians who try to improve their communication by sharing ideas formulated in some common meaningful expressions; it will assist interpreters and translators, and teachers and students for whom it is important to understand not only what the target culture expresses in the same way as their own, but also what is formulated in a different way. The Dictionary is also of benefit to non-professionals who, for the sheer enjoyment of it, wish to savour the wisdom, wit, poetry and the colourful language of proverbs.

Moto Guzzi Dec 27 2022 This book tells the story of one of the world's most innovative, beloved, and famous motorcycle manufacturers on its 100th anniversary. In 1921, Giorgio Parodi founded Moto Guzzi with the mechanic Carlo Guzzi. The purpose of the company was to design innovative motorcycles in the Mandello del Lario headquarters on Lake Como, where the factory still stands today. Moto Guzzi bikes immediately stood out for their high performance and technical sophistication. Their greatness was proven by competition wins, and these sporting triumphs were accompanied by commercial success that made Moto Guzzi the most important motorcycle manufacturer in Italy. These victories did not happen by chance, but were the result of continuous innovation. The company soon decided to withdraw from competitions because of its "manifest superiority" and instead focused on production. It has since continued to churn out iconic innovations and models, like the California, which was chosen by the LAPD for their patrols. Moto Guzzi is no longer just a motorcycle but, like Harley-Davidson, it has become a style, a philosophy and a sign of belonging to the Guzzi tribe that unites movie stars like Ewan McGregor with acclaimed designers like Tom Dixon, musicians like Billy Joel, and astronauts such as Paolo Nespoli.
