Cat behaviorist and star of Animal Planet's hit television show My Cat from Hell, Jackson Galaxy, a.k.a. "Cat Daddy," isn't what you might expect for a cat expert (as The New York Times noted, with his goatee and tattoos, he "looks like a Hells Angel"). Yet Galaxy's ability to connect with even the most troubled felines -- not to mention the stressed-out humans living in their wake -- is awe-inspiring. In this book, Galaxy tells the poignant story of his thirteen-year relationship with a petite gray-and-white short-haired cat named Benny, and gives singular advice for living with, caring for, and loving the feline in your home. When Benny arrived in his life, Galaxy was a down-and-out rock musician with not too much more going on than a part-time job at an animal shelter and a drug problem. Benny's previous owner brought the cat to the shelter in a cardboard box to give him up. Benny had seen better days --- his pelvis had just been shattered by the wheels of a car -- and his owner insisted he'd been "unbondable" from day one. Nothing could have been further from the truth. An inspiring account of two broken beings who fixed each other, Cat Daddy is laced throughout with Galaxy's amazing "Cat Mojo" advice for understanding what cats need most from us humans in order to live happier, healthier lives. Alejandro has written an autobiographical memoir which he feels has the potential to greatly benefit society. Unfortunately his message does not agree with the current "agenda" and he has been blacklisted by the United States media. On the morning of December 14, 2012, the nation found out the reason why Alejandro was such a threat because the effect from this corruption resulted in the tragic events at Sandy Hook Elementary and thus, every American Citizen is indirectly affected by the information contained in this publication. The reality is that if the Vatican would have acknowledged Alejandro's warning, those events could have been prevented. It was in February 2009 when Alejandro returned home from a short hiatus and discovered he had been locked out by strangers. His partner, well-known porn director Michael Goss, was dead and Alejandro knew something was horribly wrong. He went to the Los Angeles Sheriffs for help, but instead, they publicly humiliated him. When the Santa Monica based attorney, Jan Morrison, filed for probate on behalf of her client, Thomas Proechel,

Alejandro submitted a formal allegation against him for the murder of Michael Goss, which the authorities completely ignored. Eight months later, music artist Lady Gaga released the song "Alejandro." She has stated her inspiration was from a "Sex Monster" and the reason is because Michael Goss's media company Goss Productions, produced male fetish pornography. Lady Gaga allegedly knows the individual responsible for killing Michael Goss; that individual is a member of the Royal Arch degree of Freemasonry. His Masonic brother, Steve Cooley, happens to be the District Attorney for Los Angeles and when Alejandro confronted Mr. Cooley alleging R. William Rheinschild for the murder of Michael Goss, the response from the DA's office informed him that Michael Goss's estate, which was valued at approximately $10 Million, "did not meet the preliminary requirement of the Major Fraud division to consider investigating"; the requirement was a total property loss of at least $300,000.00. As an insult, Mr. Cooley's office redirected Alejandro back to the local authorities. The truth is, local and federal authorities have refused to help Alejandro. His career has been ruined by defamation. In December 2010 he filed a declaration which presented the evidence that proved Michael Goss was murdered. A month later an attempt to murder him failed and the LAPD censored his police report and in March 2012, Alejandro's image appeared without his consent in an advertisement for BluMedia Group which was posted on an adult pay-per-view networking website. His image was manipulated to appear as if he was being raped and was entitled "The Predator and the Prey." After confronting a representative for Katz Media Group in New York City, the Vice President of Public Relations suggested he write a book. The intention was to stall time so Alejandro's statute of limitations would run out but to everyone's surprise, Alejandro finished his book within a week and submitted it to the Library of Congress in August 2012 and in fact, Alejandro has dedicated his book to the VP of PR for Katz Media. Since person responsible for killing Michael Goss has corrupted local government in his favor and because Alejandro has exhausted every avenue for recourse, he had no other choice but to elevate his case to God's divine jurisdiction. The reason why this book is significant is because Alejandro exposes the root of social injustice and in the last chapter he makes some very specific statements that came to fruition in October 2012 when hurricane Sandy hit the northeastern United States. Do not pass this book up because Alejandro's message just might be our salvation against the Beast called Freemasonry. 'My Daddy!' features chunky 'slide-and-find' mechanisms to capture a baby's attention, with die-cut finger holes for easy manipulation. In this down and dirty debut she draws vivid portraits of bad people in worse places. A woman struggles to survive her boyfriend's terror

"...a great beach read...all the ingredients for a story that's hard to put down..." —Author A.J. Braithwaite, Inside Hawley Lodge Read a snippet (from Book 3): Robert spoke with open hands and a casual stance, "Look, fella, take it easy. We just—" "O-okay, listen, I-I'll tell you the whole story. Everything. But I swear, I never did anything to her. Nobody did. Not on my watch, anyway. I took real good care of her. I swear. You gotta believe me!” Nic’s pulse quickened. He took a step closer and cocked a brow at the stocky man, “Who her?” “Y-you know—your girl.” “My girl?” “Y-yeah. You know...petite, brunette, pretty. Kinda...” The guy relaxed a little, pulling his hands away from the fence, and started forming an hourglass shape with them. Nic pursed his lips. “Okay. I know what she looks like.” He lifted his chin at the stocky man, “So what are you talking about? ‘Your watch’. ‘Took care of her’. Where? When?” “Come on, you know...” The tattooed man looked from Nic over to Robert, as if he expected a more reasonable interrogator—a Good Cop to Nic’s Bad. But Nic insisted, “Humor me.” “Well, uh, well...” Nic took another step. The tattooed man gulped and started talking, “Yeah, okay. See, when I took the job, I didn’t know it was her, okay? It was only when I saw her close up, in the light, that I recognized her. I remembered her from the bar. From that night last summer when I pulled her off the stool. I mean, I didn’t know who she really was. I just thought she was your date, your girl or whatever, okay? I didn’t know she was like...one of you.”
