Pinocchio, Puppets, and Modernity Jan 01 2021 This study assesses the significance of Pinocchio in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries in addition to his status as the creature of a nineteenth century traversed by a cultural enthusiasm for dummies, puppets, and marionettes. This collection identifies him as a figure characterized by a 'fluid identity,' informed with transition, difference, joie de vivre, otherness, displacement, and metamorphosis, making Pinocchio a truly modern, indeed *postmodern and posthuman, cultural icon. Pinocchio, Puppets and Modernity explores this crucial and as yet little visited field, reassessing Pinocchio's genealogy and progeny, as well as illuminating both the wider context and more specific cultural manifestations of the mechanical-human interface in the domains of theatre, the fine arts, literature, radio, and even virtual reality coherently with the digital metamorphosis of our times. The wide-ranging scope of this exploration encompasses Italian, French, and English literature, dummies and marionettes in modernist and contemporary theatre, the fairytale tradition, and traditional and contemporary painting, as well as the older and newer media of radio, television, cinema, and the Internet. The diverse, comparative, and multimedia focus of this original discussion testifies to the enduring transcultural legacy of Pinocchio. Eminently sellable as a traditional cultural icon, Pinocchio is equally impactful and relevant for a globalized, multicultural, and virtual society, from Collodi to Disney and beyond. Katia Pizzi is Senior Lecturer in Italian at the Institute of Germanic & Romance Studies, School of Advanced Study, University of London. She has published volumes on cultural identities, including A City in Search of an Author (2001) and The Cultural Identities of European Cities (2010), and on children's literature and illustration.*

Genres as Repositories of Cultural Memory Apr 23 2020 This volume deals with the inherent relation between literary genres and cultural memory. Indeed, generic repertoires may be regarded as bodies of shared knowledge (a sort of 'encyclopaedia' or 'museum' of stocked culture) and have played and still play an important role in absorbing and activating that memory. The contributors have focused on some specific memory-linked genres that prove especially relevant in remembering and transforming past experiences, i.e. the (post)modern historical novel and various forms of (post)modern autobiographical writing. They deal with such renowned authors as Carlos Fuentes, Vargas Llosa, Umberto Eco, Antonio Tabucchi, John Barth, Julian Barnes, Michel Butor, Nathalie Sarraute, Alain Robbe-Grillet, Claude Simon, Georges Perec and Marguerite Yourcenar. The volume, thus, constitutes an attractive and representative sample of (post)modern forms of rewriting and problematizing individual and collective pasts.

Diva Mar 03 2021 "Animated by a luminous goddess at its center, the diva film provided a forum for denouncing social evils and exploring new models of behavior among the sexes...Dalle Vacche offers the first authoritative study of this important film genre of the cinema that preceded the First World War...Contrasting the Italian diva with the Hollywood vamp Theda Bara and the famous Danish star Asta Nielsen, Dalle Vacche shows how the diva oscillates between articulating Henri Bergson's vibrant life-force and representing the suffering figure of the Catholic mater dolorosa." -- Cover.

Come nella migliore tradizione delle commedie romantiche, il primo incontro tra Joe Bastianich e l'Italia è un disastro. Figlio di esuli istriani emigrati a New York, Joe detesta l'inglese zoppicante e il forte accento dei suoi familiari, il panino con la trippa che alle volte trova nel lunchbox e il nomignolo che nonna Erminia gli ha affibbiato, Giuseppino. Solo quando, adolescente, scopre le colline di Montalcino e il fascino borghese di Milano comincia a guardare al Belpaese con meno diffidenza. Ancora meglio, finita l'università, sarà passare un anno girando la penisola in lungo e in largo al volante di una Fiat Croma che spesso è anche il suo ricovero notturno. Al ritorno in America diventa un restaurant man di grande successo, e per vent'anni l'Italia rimane soltanto una sorta di flirt estivo. Ma quando scopre che il format televisivo di MasterChef andrà in onda anche nel nostro Paese, fa di tutto per diventare uno dei giudici dell'edizione locale. Tra Joe e l'Italia sarà infine amore, mentre il pubblico tv lo consacra come una delle celebrità più anticonvenzionali del piccolo schermo. «La vita, a volte, sa essere sorprendente, e quando lo è, merita di essere raccontata, come ha fatto Joe» - Candida Morvillo, Io Donna «Non è un libro di cucina, non è una memorialistica di MasterChef, è molto ma molto di più e più interessante» - Amica «Con Giuseppino si spalanca una bella finestra, si cambia l'aria, si fa entrare la luce. Con semplicità. Con gentilezza. Con affetto. Senza pontificare su niente, entrano in gioco sentimenti veri» - Francesca Angeleri il Manifesto

Globalizing the student rebellion in the long '68 Feb 20 2020 This volume brings us closer to the dynamics of the educational world, especially students, from a wide range of national and regional scenarios, with a special focus on Europe and Latin America. In this way, a plural panorama is shown, in which the stories centered on the usual protagonists of the 1968 processes are accompanied by other scenarios, often considered secondary, but which this volume inserts in a more general story that helps us understand how the processes of the 60s were not concrete or national, but got an absolute regional and global significance. We see a complex process of transnational demand that ranged from Eastern Europe, included in the Soviet bloc, to the very heart of the Western Hemisphere, with the United States as the main axis, passing through the politically varied Western Europe, submitted to the same processes and cultural influences. In this sense, to the works that deal with the United States and France, are added others focused on Italy, Spain and Brazil, as priority focus areas, together with other European and Latin American landscapes: Great Britain, Portugal, Greece, Slovakia, Hungary, Chile, Uruguay and Mexico, without missing, in addition, the case of one of the most unique actors on the international scene: the State of Israel. With this volume, we want to continue advancing in the knowledge of the educational world of the second half of the 20th century. Great are the challenges of this world at the beginning of the 21st century and many of them were already evident in 1968. Others have materialized as a result of those events. To confront both of them, we must first identify and analyze them, as well as being aware of their magnitude. We hope that all this work can contribute to this aim.

The Notion of "religion" in Comparative Research Nov 11 2021 Nel 1990 si tenne a Roma il XVI Congresso del I.A.H.R. che ebbe come tema la nozione di "religione". Venne particolarmente analizzato l'uso di tale termine da parte degli studiosi di lingua europea nei rapporti con le culture non europee e viceversa.
