Dr. Cherli A. Montgomery began her walk with Christ Jesus at the early age of seven in 1968, at the Lighthouse Baptist Church. Where the Rev. Dr. Jerry D. Goodloe is the Founder and Pastor. While there she was trained in the foundational truth of God's Holy Word. Some of the ministry assignments in which she worked were the following: church announcement clerk, assistant Sunday school teacher, vacation Bible school teacher, president of the Angelic Choir, secretary of the Inspirational Choir, a lead psalmists in the Evangelical Concert Recording Choir, and an Armour bearer for the late Rev. Mother Effie Sumpter. On the Project entitled "Tell It to Jesus," Dr. Cheri A. Montgomery recorded "Guide Me Oh Thou Great Jehovah". In the late 1980's Dr. Cherli A. Montgomery accepted the call of God on her life and was ordained as an Evangelist by Bishop Aaron Holmes of the New St. Mark Ministries. During the early 1990's God called Dr. Cherli A. Montgomery to Pastor the God's Grace Christian Church on Sept. she was ordained by Apostle Paul Anthony of the Gift Ministries Gary, Indiana/West Ghana, Africa. Also, in 1991's, Dr. Cherli A. Montgomery was called out as a Prophetess of God by Bishop Bernard E. Jordan Chicago School of the Prophets. In 1996, Dr. Cherli A. Montgomery was licensed as a Prophetess of God by Bishop Bill Harmon of the Christian International Network of Churches (CINC). Dr. Cherli A. Montgomery attended Taylor Business College, Logos Ministerial Bible College, Ashworth College, Johnnie Coleman Institute, and Midwest Theological Institute graduating and receiving a Doctoral Degree in Pastoral Counseling in 2006. Dr. Cherli A. Montgomery has worked for the United States Postal Service since August 3, 1985 through the present. This book is about hearing the Word of God preached boldly, plainly and faithfully. It is particularly aimed at the Christian sitting in the pew who is required by God to hear the Word of God preached with spiritual profit to their soul. However, many pastors today would also do well to hear the contents of these chapters since their performance allows, or not, the ability for the Christian to accomplish the intended ends when they hear the Word preached. If they are negligent in preaching, the hearer can never do his commanded duty. One might think that a book about "preaching" concerns hermeneutics or exegesis, or more especially, homiletics, and not particularly directed towards the Christian. This work, however, is neither about hermeneutics, or homiletics, per se. It is primarily directed at the Christian hearer, though much will be said about the minister and his pulpit ability. Many good books have dealt with being called to the ministry, or being faithful in study for preaching, or for aid in sermon preparation. Though this work may touch on all these things, and much more, it is really directed at what Christians ought to expect when the minister stands up to preach in the pulpit. If the minister is not fulfilling his office as it should be intended, what is the final result? What should the congregation see, hear and expect in this regard, biblically speaking? Reader, what do you expect? I call faith, love, and the word my three musketeers. Our confidence and assurance is knowing we can always come to God by faith through Christ Jesus. Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ is the only way to the Father. The ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ is that of love, mercy, and being compassionate to all that came seeking Him. Love is what the kingdom of God is based upon. We can never move mountains unless we have love in our hearts and unless there is an overflow of love in us. The word is Spirit and those who live in the Spirit receive the word and they rejoice. Just like the brain power of the human body so too is the word of God. Without the brain, there is no life. The body is dead. Faith, Love, and Word is a book about the Lord Jesus expounding on His word. May God through Christ Jesus open the eyes of our understanding and quicken our spirit to receive His word in Jesus's mighty name we pray. Amen. "I have been blessed to know Rob Parks not only as a brother in the Lord, but also as a dear friend. In The Balance Is the Lord's, Rob shares an encouraging word to the body of Christ to draw us into a deeper more intimate fellowship with the Lord. Rob encourages believers and clearly lays out a plan to live a balanced life in Christ to reflect the Lord to a lost and hurting world. He challenges us in the modern Western church to evaluate our value system within the church. Is it our large sanctuaries, big budgets, and professional staff that we value most or our personal relationship with Jesus Christ? In chapter two, he discusses how we as believers can handle the difficulties we face in life with a proper,

Christ-centered perspective. I have personally observed Rob live this out in his life while walking through the loss of his dear wife, Vicky, with integrity and a steadfastness that can only come from the Lord. Rob not only teaches with wisdom and depth but from the heart through his personal experiences with the Lord. Read The Balance Is the Lord's, and it will bring you to a more solid and balanced walk in Christ, which is greatly needed in these desperate and uncertain times we are living in." —Robert Lowe Robert is married to Lisa, and they have five children. He has served the body of Christ and the church in various volunteer and leadership roles since high school. He is the Internet marketing director for an RV dealership and serves as a lay elder at The Springs Church, in Colorado Springs, Colorado. "Good reminder to keep God first in everything we do, the second chapter stuck out to me about stewardship of our time and committing each day to God. We get so caught up in today's business that we put God on the back burner." —Dave Fisher Dave is a house church leader with Springs Church in Colorado Springs, Colorado, and owns his own business, The Shed Yard, small storage sheds. The final book of the Bible, Revelation prophesies the ultimate judgement of mankind in a series of allegorical visions, grisly images and numerological predictions. According to these, empires will fall, the "Beast" will be destroyed and Christ will rule a new Jerusalem. With an introduction by Will Self. It's hard to be the only one. That single sentence from a teenage congregant sums up the conviction that motivated Christian Theology for a Secular Society. In these dying days of Christendom, the reality that most Western Christians face is living out their faith as a minority in the midst of a culture that is at every level--personal, institutional, and societal--secular in nature. While most living in Western societies still affirm belief in God and often other vaguely recognizable Christian beliefs, these affirmations frequently have little to do with how daily life is lived. The idea that the God best known to us in Jesus Christ is actually in charge of life is foreign. For most, Christianity simply does not form an overarching system of meaning that shapes life. Instead, life is lived largely without reference to God. And to live any other way is often hard. In this volume, Mark McKim sets out to do theology in this context. How does one explain the core historic Christian doctrines in a way that makes sense in a secular culture--and in a way that will gain a hearing? What does it mean to be the church in this new situation? Throughout, McKim asks the question, so what? as he relates Christian teachings to a secular society and to what is actually happening in the local church. McKim's goal is to enable the singing of the Lord's song in the new and strange land of a secular society. The Short Studies in Biblical Theology series is designed to help readers see the whole Bible as a unified story--culminating in Jesus. Insightful, accessible, and practical, these books are perfect for readers looking for bite-sized introductions to major subjects in biblical theology. The third volume in the series, Work and Our Labor in the Lord explores how work fits into the framework of the whole Bible--looking at the original creation purpose for work, how it was affected by the fall, and the hope for lasting good offered to all who toil and labor in the Lord today. This book is about following Christ. My earlier book, Come to Me, Why Come to the Lord, explained the importance of coming to the Lord. But coming is only a first step. We need to follow, as Jesus commanded us to do--both as believers and as examples to others to become believers. It is in the believing that we are empowered by Christ to "overcome" the toils of this world and become heirs to his. And this is the Lord's gift to us: that in following him, all things become possible, even seeing past our own daily problems to the kingdom that he prepared for us "from the foundation of the world." DIV Unlock the treasures of salvation It is time to give God His due honor and reverence in a way that will revolutionize your life in your worship, prayers, and personal life. /div Enter into God's presence with new understanding and excitement when you discover what it means to be an Extravagant Worshiper. Darlene Zschech's passionate love for her Lord leaps from the page to as she inspires, encourages, and instructs worshipers and worship leaders alike. A quality pew and ministry Bible at a very economical price. - Complete text with subject headings and translators' footnotes. Pilgrim Journeys: The Lord's Prayer takes you on a 40-day journey through the prayer Jesus taught his followers - one which continues to shape the lives of Christians across the world. Each day provides you with a short Bible reflection, an invitation to pray and a suggestion for responding to the vision of the Lord's Prayer itself. The Pilgrim Journeys booklets are ideal daily companions for anyone seeking to grow in the Christian faith. They are suitable for those preparing for baptism or confirmation - including those using the Pilgrim discipleship course - but can be used by anyone at any stage of their Christian journey. Christianity is hard. Having faith today is difficult at best. Our faith will be tested by God, Satan, society, our loved ones and ourselves. Why is the gate narrow? Why do we need to share in the sufferings of Christ? Why is evil in the world? Why did you give us free will to choose? Why is the message of the Gospel foolishness to most people? Doesn't God want all to come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. Why is it so hard for us to believe you? Frustrated with the struggles to maintain his faith, the author works through some of the hard questions that Christians will be asked and may have asked themselves. God works through the least likely to accomplish His purpose and will. Written by a soldier for Christ, this book organizes biblical truths to enable the reader to formulate their own beliefs based on the word of God. After years of seeking God through studying, attending and leading classes, the author presents what the Bible says about key issues in the believers walk of faith. "For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world--our faith" (1 John 5:4 NKJV). Living on Solid Ground Most couples struggle at some point in their relationship with hard questions of marriage and family life, such as, what is God's primary purpose for marriage? What does it mean for a man to be the head of a home? Is divorce ever acceptable? How do we raise children who will love God? What does God have to say about the way we communicate, or about sexual intimacy? Authors Steve and Dee Brestin have wrestled with these questions in their own marriage and have found that God's Word is the only reliable blue-print for marriage and family life. This study will guide you through the encouragement that the Bible gives for those relationships. Jesus told us the storms will come and batter our homes, but if we obey him, our house will stand firm. How can creatures made from dust become members of God's household "forever"? In this New Studies in Biblical Theology volume, Michael Morales explores the narrative context, literary structure and theology of Leviticus, following its dramatic movement from the tabernacle to the temple--and from the earthly to the heavenly Mount Zion in the New Testament. The CREATOR GOD worked HIS WONDERS in Creating the Heavens and the Earth and all things therein, and mankind came behind HIM and invented their own false gods and instigated Hell, deception, and all manner of controversy and misery on this globe. Moreover, none of these false gods have established any peace on this Earth - only confusion and despair. "...they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save." Isaiah 45:20 Thus Saith the LORD, Book Two contains astounding revelations for these "LATTER DAYS" that are even more jaw-dropping than are the following books: The Invention of the Jewish People by Shlomo Sand, CAESAR'S MESSIAH ("Bible Scholar claims Christianity was Invented") by Joseph Atwill, and Jesus Never Existed by Kenneth Humphreys. Given the changes in the weather patterns, storms, Earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, and the madness that has gripped the rulers of this world and so many others, people should surmise that this world order has made its run, and that the CREATOR GOD is calling attention to HIMSELF and taking back HIS Universe. "My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass: Because I will publish the name of the LORD: ascribe ye greatness unto our God. He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he." Deuteronomy 32:2 - 4 "And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, the LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations." Exodus 3:15 "Know therefore that the LORD thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations;" Deuteronomy 7:9 "Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ASK FOR THE OLD PATHS, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein." Jeremiah 6:16 "Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways FROM THE ANCIENT PATHS, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up;" Jeremiah 18:15 "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else." Isaiah 45:22 Learn the GOD's TRUTH; read what Thus Saith the LORD, Book Two and act accordingly in order to be spared from GOD's WRATH in these coming days...and believe me - they are coming, i.e., if they aren't already here!***LORD GOD of my fathers, think on me for good, and remember me for my efforts to Exalt you, your Holy Name, and to bring your Righteous Book of the Law to the fore. And spare me according to the greatness of THY Mercies. Tziona Yisrael This book is designed to reach this generation for our Lord Jesus Christ. It is our desire to reach the lost at all cost. The Lord has blessed us abundantly in our spiritual and personal lives, and we want the world to know about Jesus and his saving grace. It is our desire to share our faith with those that either don't know about or don't understand salvation. Book 2 in a 4-book series which teaches and explains with exhaustive scripture references the Gospel of Universal Reconciliation - that Jesus Christ is the Saviour of all men - not some men, but ALL men! "... God was in Christ, reconciling the world [everyone] unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation." 2 Corinthians 5:19. Serving the Lord is something that is best begun in His immediate presence. When a person has served Him in His immediate presence and satisfied His heart, He may send such a one to go and serve on His behalf. Serving the Lord in His immediate presence consists essentially in worshipping Him. Of the leaders of the church in Antioch it was said, "While they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, 'Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.' Then after fasting and praying, they laid their hands on them and sent them off" (Acts 13:2-3). Barnabas and Saul were sent out to serve from the presence of the Lord to the work to which God had called them. They were ministering in His presence when He sent them away to minister on His behalf. All service of the Lord ought to begin that way. Serving the Lord is invariably tied to resurrection life. No one can truly serve the Lord without that He, the Lord of all glory, has taken the initiative to bring that one into His service. This is so because those who serve Him must know death with Christ and resurrection with Him. Service is the flow of the life of God, and without resurrection life, there can be no flow. People can do many things in the Lord's name, but only that which flows from life will last, and to have the flow of life there must, first of all, be death. A person will minister in proportion to the extent to which he has died and risen with Christ. Those who spare themselves the hard demands of the cross will find that they have also spared themselves the ministry of life. The extent to which a person surrenders himself to death to the world and the flesh, is the extent to which that one will know resurrection life and resurrection ministry. There can be a work in might and power that is not fully of the Holy Spirit. Samson ministered in power, although he was out of vital fellowship with the Holy

God. God demands holiness from all who would serve Him to His satisfaction. Finally, we want to say that Christian work is acceptable in His sight and satisfies His heart only to the extent to which it is in harmony with His will and under His direction. Every work that is outside His will and direction is not only useless; it is an abomination to Him. Too many believers today are doing nothing for the Lord. They are shy and withdrawn and lack boldness and a clear sense of direction. Where are those who would dare to step out at His command and take entire villages, towns, provinces, nations, and continents for Him? Where are those who would seek great things for Him? My prayer is that the Lord of the harvest should use these messages to raise servants and slaves unto His glorious Son, and that such will start in His presence and, as He directs, end in the uttermost parts of the world. Lord Jesus, ignore the weaknesses and shortcomings both of these messages and of the human messenger, and use them, Lord, for Your glory. Amen. "Susan Muto challenges us to turn away from the cultural impulse toward me-centeredness. She maps out the factors that work against our being one in the Lord and she offers ways to begin each day looking to 'love first' and to seek God's will in each daily action"-- Singing the Lord's Song in a New Land is one of the first books to address ministry in Korean American contexts and the first from the highly regarded Valparaiso Project to explore how faith practices work differently in a racial ethnic community. The groundbreaking work identifies eight key practices of the Korean American culture: keeping the Sabbath, singing, fervent prayer, resourcing the life cycle, bearing wisdom, living as an oppressed minority, fasting, and nurturing. Subtle is the Lord is widely recognized as the definitive scientific biography of Albert Einstein. The late Abraham Pais was a distinguished physicist turned historian who knew Einstein both professionally and personally in the last years of his life. His biography combines a profound understanding of Einstein's work with personal recollections from their years of acquaintance, illuminating the man through the development of his scientific thought. Pais examines the formulation of Einstein's theories of relativity, his work on Brownian motion, and his response to quantum theory with authority and precision. The profound transformation Einstein's ideas effected on the physics of the turn of the century is here laid out for the serious reader. Pais also fills many gaps in what we know of Einstein's life - his interest in philosophy, his concern with Jewish destiny, and his opinions of great figures from Newton to Freud. This remarkable volume, written by a physicist who mingled in Einstein's scientific circle, forms a timeless and classic biography of the towering figure of twentieth-century science. Do you want to be challenged to deepen your understanding of the characteristics and requirements of Almighty God? The Understanding God Series contains the bulk of Pastor Tony Evans' compelling and hard-hitting resources on the essentials about God, Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, Spiritual Warfare, and prophecy. Now available in paperback, readers will not want to be without a single book in the series by this popular and powerful speaker and author. Just because many of us ignore spiritual warfare does not mean we're not in an intense battle. Tony Evans tackles this difficult and theologically complex issue with the intensity, skill, and biblical foundation readers have come to expect. He systematically reveals Satan's strategies and helps readers fight back. While on a book promotion tour the Lord brought to my mind Ps 127. He reminded me that he wanted me involved in what he was doing and not just for me to include him in what I was doing. There are a lot of us who include God in what we are doing but even fewer of us who are involved in what he is actually doing. Unless the Lord Builds the House was written to refresh you and inspire you to turn to the Master Builder of life and learn how to relate to Him as well as learning what the Master Builder expects. Many practical tools were added to help you build a strong foundation for your life and career. Many of us need to learn more about relating, listening, understanding and yielding to the Master Builder as well as what he expects, and how he desires to invest in you by imparting in you the desires of your heart and how to successfully build them. If you are looking to be refreshed and perhaps challenged, then this is the book for you. The Master Builder of this life has your best interest in mind. Psalm 127: 1 "Unless the Lord builds the house it's builders labor in vain..." Author Howard Lull RN, BSN, and MHA is founder of L3 Consultants and has over 20 years of experience in the healthcare profession as an Emergency Department nurse and hospital administrator. Many scholars have adopted Walter Zimmerli's proposal that the "way" in Second Isaiah is a literal and physical highway extending from Babylon to Jerusalem only to be reinterpreted as a spiritual, metaphorical, and pious way of living in Third Isaiah. This book will properly define each mention of the "way" in Isaiah as well as provide a coherent interpretation of this theme's theological significance within the book. The way of the LORD is initially conceived of in the 1st half of the book as a highway leading to Zion common to both the dispersed Israelites as well as the nations. In Isaiah, Chs 34-35 provide a paradigm of what this way will entail and its theological significance. The Old Testament was Jesus' Bible and it's all about him. As he explained to the disciples on the Emmaus road, a correct understanding of those Scriptures is vital to our faith and hope. For anyone looking to interpret the Old Testament wisely and well, Jason DeRouchie provides a logical twelve-stage process to deepen understanding, taking us from an analysis of a passage's genre all the way to its practical application. Hebrew grammar, historical context, biblical theology and much more are also studied. Learn how to track an author's thought-flow, grasp the text's message, and apply the ancient Word in this modern world, all in light of Christ's redeeming work. Then plunge into DeRouchie's recommended resources to go further in your studies every step of the way. The earth is the Lord's, says Psalm 24. God owns it, in other words. Is it time to take this seriously, as God's word does? If so, it means that “secular” is an illusion, and our traditional division of the world into “sacred” and “secular” is false. This work looks at the major consequences for Christians when we see the earth as sacred and realize the stewardship that follows. We are called as Christians to take a prophetic role in forming a worldview which understands that we live as sacred beings in the Lord’s sacred space. Jo-Jo the Lamb is the star character in this Christian book series that teaches children bible verses. In every book Jo-Jo shares the truth of Jesus Christ with his audience as he overcomes obstacles through the power of God’s Word! In a malarial outpost in the South American rain forest, two misplaced gringos converge and clash in this novel from the National Book Award-winning author. Martin Quarrier has come to convert the elusive Niaruna Indians to his brand of Christianity. Lewis Moon, a stateless mercenary who is himself part Indian, has come to kill them on the behalf of the local comandante. Out of this struggle Peter Matthiessen creates an electrifying moral thriller—adapted into a movie starring John Lithgow, Kathy Bates, and Tom Waits. A novel of Conradian richness, At Play in the Fields of the Lord explores both the varieties of spiritual experience and the politics of cultural genocide. Sorrows and lack is not what God created us for, as God’s children we should not lack anything in our lives. God’s purpose is for us to live more abundant life. He is our good Shepherd He cares for us, He wants to take care of our troubles and sorrows. In this book you will be able to realise your identity and you will discover your destiny in Christ Jesus. Once you grasp this you will know your rights as a christian. You will also know who you are in Christ Jesus. The enemy will never ever toss you around because you will take a ground and apply more word in your life. As a christian your life is a journey, you will also learn more about how to reach your final destination in depth without getting destructed. Do you know where is your final destination as a christian?

After a long journey of stumbling, falling and getting up again but finally you will dwell in the house of the Lord forever and ever. It is God’s will that will prevail in your life no matter what sort of destruction have you met along the way. It is God’s plan to redeem and restore His people, because He cares so much for them. Our Shepherd knows His sheep by their names and they know His voice. Does the Shepherd know you by your name? Do you know the voice of the Father? Are you not confusing it with the counterfeit voice? Have you struggled and tried very hard to please the Lord in your life but nothing good is happening? May be you did not need to struggle and try because, God only wants your heart to open up to Him so that He can invade and dwell within you. Once He is within your spirit, He will do the rest of the work in your life. You need to be in spirit to please the Lord, you can’t try by your efforts because you not gonna be able to make it. God is reminding us that we do not have to lack anything because we’ve got Him as our Shepherd. All that we need is in us, it has been given to us. It grieves God that His people are perishing for the lack of knowledge (Hosea 4:6). Now is the time for the christians to get up and claim their rights and begin to live an abundant life, this is what our Lord came for on this earth not for us to suffer but to have life even more abundantly. You might have suffered lack for a long time, your life is being limited by the enemy. Find out in the book about your rights as a citizen of the kingdom of heaven. If you’re a child of a king, you don’t lack anything. All that we need is there in the word of God. Right thinking, right believing and right confession. Speak the word of faith and begin to live life that you have prophesied with your mouth. The Lords Prayer is the revelation of the proper pattern of prayer life in the body of Christ. In the Lords Prayer, Jesus revealed the Bible’s mysteries and heavenly treasures. “The Message of the Lords Prayer” is God’s calling and revelation of salvation and recovery for all who hear the voice of God. (Practical Life) This book was written to assist the Christian with praising our Lord. For some odd reason we tend to wait for the new car, the new house, the new job, the increase in income before we give God more than the same old Sabbath Day praise. But He (God) is worthy of more than that from us. God is worthy of praise for the things we don’t see, the things we over look and even the things that seem to be insignificant to us. It is the mighty hand of God that brings forth all righteousness. And if for no other reason, we should reverence Him for it. Each passage of scripture will be uplifting as well as inspiring. Discover the bliss of magnifying God from the depths of your heart. Experience the feeling of God inhabiting your praises. Express the passion you have for the Father and all of His goodness. Your joy will grab you, and the Holy Spirit within will burn like fire shut up in your bones. You will find yourself praising the Lord over and over again; and it will become easier and automatic. Like the old saying goes, “It’ll be a piece of cake.” Regular spiritual reading is essential for anyone who truly seeks an intimate relationship with God. Wilfrid Stinissen won an international following with his books on prayer, sacred Scripture, and spiritual direction, wrote this collection of daily meditations to promote inner recollection and attention to the love of God. These meditations will draw readers closer to the heart of God and reveal the spiritual vision of one of today’s most profound Christian writers and thinkers. The only true and unedited telling of the life of Christ—his life and times, in historical context, but not lacking the psychology behind his physical being and spirit. Unlike other books seeking to strip Jesus’ story to reveal only the human being, Romano Guardini’s The Lord gives the complete story of Jesus Christ—as man, Holy Ghost, and Creator. Pope Benedict XVI lauds Guardini’s work as providing a full understanding of the Son of God, away from the prejudice that rationality engenders. Put long-held myths aside and discover the entire truth about God’s only begotten Son.
