This new edition of the best-selling and trusted Tricolore 4, is a high ability course supporting all the new 2016 GCSE specifications. The course offers a blend of print and digital content, providing your students with everything they'll need to manipulate language confidently and prepare them thoroughly for their exams. Word count 23,180 Bestseller This book provides original and stimulating listening practice across a range of levels and topics.

The activities are designed around authentic scenarios and help students develop specific listening skills, such as listening for details, identifying emotions or listening for opinions. The book is suitable for A2-B2 level students and is an ideal supplement in mixed ability as well as mixed level classes. Spiral binding maximises the longevity of the book and accompanying Audio CDs include recordings for all listening tasks from the book. The recordings expose students to a variety of native and non-native accents and cover a range of genres from radio and television to academic lectures, presentations and conversational dialogues. Award-winning original fiction for learners of English. At seven levels, from Starter to Advanced, this impressive selection of carefully graded readers offers exciting reading for every student's capabilities. It was just a normal Friday evening in Moreland Road. Jason was listening to his iPod and couldn't hear his mother shouting. Nina wasn't sure how to tell her husband about her news. Maggie smiled as she thought about her holiday romance in Chile. Sam looked worried - money trouble again. Then that evening something happened which changed all of their lives. Contains a paperback and Audio CD with complete text recordings from the book. Clear structure, closely mirroring the Student's Book content New listening tasks per unit, with all audio contained on the CD Lots of exam practice throughout the pages and in the Get Ready for your Exam sections Plenty of revision, reviews for each pair of units, and a self-check page (and answers provided) at the end of every unit This exciting new series of non-fiction readers provides interesting and educational content, with activities and project work. The readers are graded at four levels, from 3 to 6, suitable for students from age 8 and older. They can support Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL), and cover a broad range of topics, within three curriculum areas: The World of Science and Technology The Natural World The World of Arts and Social Studies Also available for each reader: * Activity Book * Audio CD Pack (Reader and Audio CD) Answers to the activities can be found on the <http://www.oup.com/elt/teacher/readanddiscover> teacher's website/Inspire your 11-14 students with brand new 'Allez', whatever their starting point at KS3. The audio CDs provide lots of exciting, authentic dialogues to support the student book giving your students a good model for French pronunciation. This edition is a well organized 6 level general English course for adults with clear learning aims making it easy for ELT teachers to plan lessons and measure students progress. Modern, original fiction for learners of English. Liz teaches archaeology in Athens. She works too hard and her doctor tells her she needs to take a holiday. So she goes to the beautiful and peaceful Greek island of Sifnos. But the peace does not last long when a local man dies in suspicious circumstances. Liz ignores advice not to get involved and her relaxing holiday becomes a matter of life and death. More and more pupils are learning Spanish, starting in the second year of Secondary school (Year 8). This book is designed specifically for Year 8 starters. Tom Walsh had a lot to learn about life. He liked travelling, and he was in no hurry. He liked meeting people, anyone and everyone. He liked the two American girls on the train. They were nice and very friendly. They knew a lot of places. Tom thought they were fun. Tom certainly had a lot to learn about life. This is a collection of short stories about adventures on trains. Strange, wonderful, and frightening things can happen on trains - and all of them happen here.
